

Application to participate in the 2014 GIFT Teachers Symposium

EGU General Assembly April 27-30, 2014 Vienna Austria

Our Changing Planet

Grants are available to support teachers to participate in the 2014 Geosciences Information for Teachers (GIFT) Symposium at the 2014 European Geosciences Union (EGU) General Assembly in Vienna, Austria. Selected teachers will receive a travel /hotel stipend and free registration to the meeting.

Participating teachers will be selected based on their teaching experience and a supporting statement from their school administration. Selected teachers will be expected to attend the entire workshop and submit a statement within 1 year after the workshop on their impression of the workshop and how they plan to use this experience in their future teaching activities.

To apply please submit the following information:

- Applicant name, contact information, E-mail address
- School name and address
- Your teaching experience (how many years?)
- Relevance of this year's topic to your teaching practice
- List the subjects you teach, and ages of students
- The workshop will be conducted in English. Please describe your capability to understand and speak English.
- A description of any leadership activities you have taken at your school or in national educational activities (examples: training new teachers, developing curriculum, etc.).
- A letter of recommendation (by attached PDF document) from the senior administrator in your school supporting your application.

Applications should be received as soon as possible and in any case no later than November 30, 2013.

Successful applicants will be notified by December 15, 2013

Teachers will be strongly encouraged to prepare a poster of their classroom activities. There is a special poster session for educational activities: "Science in tomorrow's classroom"

Send your application via email to any of the members of the Committee on Education (list at : (http://www.egu.eu/outreach/gift/committee_on_education/) preferentially the one in your country if there is one, or to education@egu.eu
